Realtors to Send Five To Detroit Convention

Jack Schmidt, president of the Torrance-Lomita Board of Realtors announced plans have been completed for the 55th annual 1962 national convention of the National Assn. of Real Estate Boards to be in Detroit, Mich., Nov. 8 through Nov. 15.

Delegates and members from the California Real Estate Assn. will be headed by President Charles H. Brown. Arthur P. Wilcox, NAREB president will head the convention. Frederick H. Boland, ambassador from Ireland will be the opening speaker at the opening general session. The convention will include such speakers as Mortimer M. Coplin, commissioner of internal revenue, and several more national and internationally known speakers. Also included are real estate seminars and important sessions dealing in important categories vital to the real estate profession.

President Jack Schmidt, accompanied by his wife Beulah; Forest Beyrer, executive secretary of the board; realtor Lee Halson, realtor Marjorie Krogman, and realtor June Hansley will attend this meeting in Detroit.

New College Dean Notes I-A Support

The dean of facilities planning for the new South Bay State College, Harry A. Nethery, has received a number of communications in support of State Proposition 1-A on the November ballot. This proposition includes $7,700,000 for the initial development of the new state college to be located in either Torrance or Palos Verdes area.

The letters in support of Proposition 1-A were received from the Oil Chemical and Atomic Workers International Union, Local No. 1-547 of Lawndale; George M. Froom, secretary-treasurer, the Board of Education of the Torrance Unified School District, signed by Dr. J. H. Hull, superintendent; the Imperial Village Women's Club of Inglewood, Mrs. Walter G. Smith, corresponding secretary; and the Gardena Valley Chamber of Commerce, Clark Mills, president.

Each of these communications included a recommendation that members work individually and as a group toward the passage of Proposition 1-A.

BROWN AND NIXON BOTH AGREE PROPOSITION 1-A IS VITAL

Both candidates for governor are agreed. We must build now for the future. We must support proposition 1-A. In the next three years 120,000 qualified students will seek a college education on one of the campuses of California's public institutions of higher learning. The enrollment lines will soon be forming. We must build now. Proposition 1-A is the answer.

Both candidates for governor are agreed. Proposition 1-A is vital.

BROWN says:

"I consider Proposition 1-A the most important of the many urgent propositions on the November 6 ballot. Without it, the high-quality education system which has meant so much to California's economic, social and cultural life will be seriously in danger."

NIXON says:

"It is imperative that we have the necessary school construction funds for our rapidly expanding educational needs. This is why I strongly endorse Proposition 1-A."

Both candidates for Superintendent of Public Instruction agree . . . Proposition 1-A is vital.

RICHARDSON says:

"If California is to continue to lead the nation into the space age it will be because we continue to assign to education the very highest priority."

RAFFERTY says:

"Passage of Proposition 1-A is of the greatest importance to higher education and to the future of the great state of California."

Businessmen agree . . . Proposition 1-A is vital.

DONALD DOUGLAS JR., president of Douglas Aircraft, says:

"Advanced training has become more and more important in our complex modern society. I wholeheartedly endorse Proposition 1-A to provide new facilities in the state's higher educational system."

HOWARD EDGERTON, president of California Federal Savings, says:

"The cost of higher education is returned many times in California's economic progress. It shows up in every Californian's paycheck. I sincerely believe that Proposition 1-A represents a sound and insured investment in California's prosperity."
